RE: Friends of Congressman George Miller, C00026757

Dear Ms. Sugarman:

Thank you for your letters of November 7, 2000 regarding the April Quarterly Report (2/17/00-3/31/00) and the July Quarterly Report (4/1/00-9/30/00). This letter and attached amendments constitutes our written response to your letters.

In your letter regarding the April Quarterly Report, you noted that the contributions from the Hotel & Restaurant Employees International Union TIP PAC may have exceeded the limit for the 2000 Primary election. Our amendment of August 25, 2000 regarding this same contribution incorrectly identified the non-monetary contribution of 3/20/00 of $2,500 as a Primary contribution. It should have correctly identified it as a General contribution; the attached amendment now indicates the correct election.

You also stated that on Schedule B we disclosed contributions to federal candidates that did not have complete descriptions. We have amended Schedule B to add the word "House" to our descriptions of contributions to federal congressional candidates.

A third issue was that we received contributions toward our Primary Election after Election Day. However, both contributions with receipt dates after Election Day were actually postmarked and/or overnighted on or before 3/7/00. I have attached copies of the postmarks, overnight receipts, and transmittal letter.

The next issue was that we may have failed to file a 48 hour notice. Our records indicate we filed late notices for all receipts of $1,000 or more during the Primary late period. However, there was a late notice filed on 3/10/00 for a contribution received by Congressman Miller on 3/3/00 that was not received by the campaign until 3/10/00.

The last issue for this reporting period concerned conduit contributions. Specifically, we did not report the date of receipt by the conduit. However, it is our understanding that this is not required. According to the FEC Campaign Guide for Congressional Candidates and Committees, a recipient committee is required to report the name and address of the conduit, the date of receipt, and the itemization of the contribution received from the conduit. Our report reflected all of this required information.

In your letter regarding the July Quarterly report (4/1/00-6/30/00), you noted that there were missing descriptions for contributions made to federal congressional candidates. We have added the word "House" to all of the contributions in the attached amendment.

You also noted that we should put all political committees' contributions on Line 11(c), and all contributions from individuals on line 11(a). However, we have been previously instructed by your office to put only federal committees on line 11(c). The political committees listed on 11(a) are state committees that contain permissible federal funds. They are not federal committees.

We are submitting an amendment for each reporting period mentioned. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Russell H. Miller

Dear George:

Enclosed, please find a contribution from SEIU COPE US DIVISION.

The Federal Election Commission considers this a lawful earmarked contribution for which the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") has served as the conduit and requires that both you and the DCCC report that this campaign contribution was earmarked through the DCCC. I am enclosing an illustration of how this contribution should be designated on your FEC report.

As Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, I am pleased to provide this assistance to your campaign. Should you have any questions, please call me, or contact the DCCC Financial Services Division, at 202-863-1500.

With Best Regards,

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Kennedy
